

LOCAL NEWS.

CORPORATION COURT—Judge E. M. Love presiding—CONTINUATION OF YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.—Administration upon the estate of Kizzzy Griffith was granted upon Henry C. Griffith, and appraisers appointed.

Commonwealth vs. Susan Stimpkins; on an indictment for malicious cutting; motion in arrest of judgment overruled and judgment 18 months in the penitentiary; execution of judgment stayed 20 days after first day of next session of Court of Appeals.

To Day.—Com. vs. L. J. Robey, on an indictment for petit larceny in stealing money from the desk of Tax Collector John T. Hill, in his office in the market building.

J. T. Hill sworn.—I am Tax Collector for the Southern district; my office is in the market house building; Lem. Robey was janitor of that part of the building on the 15th of August last; I had lost different sums of money from my desk previous to that time; on that day I requested John Marriott, my book keeper, to mark certain notes to be left in the desk that night with a view to the detection of the thief; the amount left in the desk was thirty-six dollars and thirty-six cents in U. S. Treasury notes and fractional currency; in the drawer was left two five dollar bills, and were marked in red ink, along the lower edge of the back of the notes, J. T. H. in large letters; the fractional currency was marked across the figure 0 in the corner of the notes, and the nickles were chipped in the edge; when I returned to the office next morning I met Robey, who said he was glad I had come, as he had left his keys in my office the evening previous and wanted to get them; I did not unlock the drawer when he was present; I sent him to my house to get a memorandum book, and then made the discovery that a part of the money was gone; I then signalled to Captain Webster and requested him to follow Robey and make the arrest, which he did, and carried him to the Mayor's office; a number of the marked notes were found upon him; one of the five dollar bills was gone and one was found in his pocket-book; I recognized the money by the marks which had been put upon it; the Mayor took charge of the money; I believe the five dollar note now shown me is the one taken from my office and found on Robey; can't be positive; I believe it to be the note; I identify several of these fractional currency notes now shown me as those taken from my office and found on Lem. Robey's person when taken to the Mayor's office; I think the pocket-book now shown me is the one found on Robey's person and in which he had the stolen money, but can't be positive; he was bailed on Monday; I met him on Tuesday following and told him to return the money to me, that I could not afford to lose it; he said he had spent a portion of it; had previously marked money and missed it, but the money previously marked and lost was marked in a different manner from this; I was particular about that.

John Marriott.—Am in Mr. Hill's employment; I marked the money in the drawer on the 15th of August and made a memorandum of the amount (described to the jury the marks placed on the notes); recognize the notes now shown me as part of those marked by me on that occasion; had previously marked notes for Mr. Hill.

Capt. Webster.—Know Robey; made the arrest of Robey; searched his person; found money on him; recognize the five dollar note now shown me as the one found on him; found fractional currency on his person; believe the pocket-book shown me is the one found on him; found a key on Robey which, when tried, fitted Hill's money drawer; this is key; have known Robey sometime, and prior to this occurrence believed him to be an honest, upright man.

Mayor Kemper being sworn, testified as follows: The pocket book and money now shown me is that taken from Robey on his examination before me; I have had it in my possession from that time until today, when I handed it to Mr. Johnson, the attorney for the Commonwealth, in a sealed package; have known Robey since the war, and never heard anything against his character until this charge; when Robey was brought to the Mayor's office he claimed the money as his own, but when shown the red marks upon it said nothing.

Rev. Mr. Spring.—Called by defence; known Robey 17 years; always considered his character good; have trusted him with money repeatedly, for which he always accounted. Robey is a son of Grace Church.

H. C. Field.—Have known Robey many years; his character was always good; have trusted him with anything; I have always regarded him as a person of weak mind.

The case was submitted to the jury without instructions or argument, the counsel for defence, Col. C. E. Stuart, requesting the jury to recommend the prisoner to the mercy of the court. Verdict guilty and judgment thirty days in the city jail.

Com. vs. James Dugan; indictment for violating Sunday law; jury; verdict not guilty and discharged.

The court then took a recess.

Overseers of the Poor vs. James Swann; bastardy; jury sworn; verdict guilty.

Court adjourned till 10 o'clock to-morrow.

COLUMBIA FIRE COMPANY.—The regular monthly meeting of this company took place last night, the President, D. A. Windsor, in the chair, and G. Y. Worthington, Jr., Secretary.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

The Executive Committee made their report concerning the recent troubles growing out of the removal of the late engineer and his removal of certain property in the hall to which he had claim—and recommended the purchase of other articles to supply the place of those carried away.

The committee recommended that a vote of thanks be tendered Joseph Young, engineer of the Hydration, for his assistance when without a regular engineer.

The report of the committee was accepted. Four names were dropped from membership for non-attendance.

Mr. Carlin Creighton offered a resolution of thanks to Joseph Young for services rendered to the company during the absence of the engineer which was adopted.

Mr. Mahlon Janney presented the resignation of Edmund Burke, and said he regretted to present the resignation and only did so at the urgent request of the member himself, and moved that the resignation be not accepted.

Mr. Falls moved to lay on the table, and Mr. Rishel moved to indefinitely postpone it.

After some discussion Mr. Janney offered the following resolution which was adopted.

Resolved, "That the Company accept with sincere regret the resignation of Edmund Burke; and that he be given at all times the privilege of the hall; and that his name be placed on the honorary list."

A resolution was passed appointing a committee of three to inquire into the expediency of altering the engine house and refurnishing the hall, and to have estimates made of the expense.

Messrs. Rishel, Falls and Janney were appointed as the committee.

Also, another resolution abolishing all initiation fees, was carried.

A motion to pay $3 per month for a janitor, was rescinded, and the meeting then adjourned.

THE STREET RAILWAY MOVEMENT.—There is to be a mass meeting at Sarepta Hall, this evening, looking to the early reinstatement of the cars upon our streets—a consummation devoutly to be desired. A fair and easy plan is proposed by a number of our business men, which has proven acceptable to the majority of all persons to whom it has been submitted, and it is in a few words this: Those who desire to do so are requested to sign a paper agreeing to buy quarterly, in advance, a certain number of tickets—say $5 a quarter, or more, for two years. This guarantee to constitute the basis of a lease of the road and stock to an individual or company who, on his or her part, will contract to run the cars the specified time—two years. It is to be hoped that this simple plan, so feasible and conclusive of the whole matter, will meet not only a hearty approval at the hands of the citizens to-night, but that necessary approval which results in prompt and liberal action. How many of our business people are willing to let this important adjunct to their material interest fail for the want of a few cents per day on their part to sustain it? There are numbers of mechanics and laboring men who could well afford to invest in these tickets, whether they used the tickets, resold them, or gave them away, for there is not a day's run of the cars but will directly or indirectly put in motion influences whose ultimate effect will be advantageous to themselves. It is proposed at this time, as we understand, simply to get the cars on the street again, allowing the question of the extension of the line to be settled hereafter. There is every prospect that with the road in active operation an arrangement will be effected by which its terminus will be carried at least to West End, and this measure will be the guarantee of its future and permanent success. Let our people turn out largely to-night and evince their interest in the movement.

POLICE REPORT.—The following cases have been reported at police headquarters since yesterday afternoon.

Thomas Washington, colored, for interfering with the chain gang, was fined and discharged.

William Jackson, a colored canal boatman for disorderly conduct and resisting a police officer was fined and discharged.

John Wilson, committed to jail for stealing a bottle of whiskey from G. King, was re-examined and discharged.

William Goodhand, for an assault upon Samuel M. Dishman, committed in Fairfax county, was before Justice Brown of that county yesterday afternoon, and was discharged upon the payment of costs and giving security to keep the peace. The evidence elicited was to the effect that Dishman had made a contract to do some work with dressed lumber, that some lumber sent to him was undressed, that when he told Goodhand of it, and reminded him of the contract, Goodhand called him a liar, striking and knocking him down at the same time, and when down trying to choke him, and falling in that jumping upon him and stomping upon his breast and abdomen, injuring his chest and producing a hernia.

LAW SUIT.—In the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, yesterday, there was called up the case of William Fitch, trustee of West Willowbury, vs. Patrick B. Dunn. This is an action of trover. The declaration in this case is as follows: The plaintiff sues the defendant in this action, for that said defendant, on the first day of December, 1874, at Washington, D. C., converted to his own use, and wrongfully deprived the plaintiff of the use and possession of the plaintiff's goods; that is to say, two horses, eight oxen, three wagons, two sets of harness, four ox yokes, and four chains of the aggregate value of one thousand dollars, for which sum he claims judgment, besides costs. The defendant pleaded that he was not guilty, and the case was argued, but no decision reached.

SMALL HOUSES.—The following from the Lynchburg News is equally applicable to Alexandria. There is a constant and noticeable want of small residences in this city. Almost daily we have applications from persons wishing to know of houses of this description which can be rented. It is rather singular that some of our enterprising moneyed men do not erect comfortable and convenient dwellings on their property. It does not cost a great deal and the investment is an excellent one, because they pay back in a few years the money which the owner originally invested in them. We hope that property owners will consider these things. Many small families are boarding now, because they cannot get houses in which to begin house keeping.

NEW TIME TABLE.—On and after Saturday next, passenger trains on the W. & O. R. R. will be run according to the following schedule: The mail train will leave Washington at 9 a. m., and Alexandria at 9.10 a. m., daily, except Sunday; pass Leesburg, going westward, at 11.25 a. m.; and arrive at Purcellville at 12 m. Leave Purcellville at 12.30 p. m.; pass Leesburg, going eastward, at 1.10 p. m.; and arrive at Alexandria at 3.15 p. m., and at Washington at 3.30 p. m. The accommodation train will leave Washington at 4 p. m., and Alexandria at 4.10 p. m., daily, except Sunday, and arrive at Leesburg at 6.25 p. m. Leave Leesburg at 6 a. m., and arrive at Alexandria at 8.15, and Washington at 8.30 a. m.

DRY GOODS AT DISCOUNT.—A well dressed colored woman, who arrived here on the ten o'clock train from Washington, this morning, was approached at the corner of Queen and Washington streets by another colored woman and accused of having stolen her clothes and wearing them. Denying the charge, she was attacked vigorously by her accuser, and repelling the assault as effectually as possible, such a scuffle ensued, and clothes tearing resulted as to be "nothing to speak of."

TEACHER'S INSTITUTE AT MANASSAS.—We have been requested by the committee to extend an invitation to the teachers, trustees and friends of public schools generally, to attend the Teacher's Institute, to commence at Manassas, on Thursday October 22d. W. H. Ruffner, State Superintendent; George F. McGuffee, late President of the School Board of Washington, and several other distinguished gentlemen have promised to be present and deliver addresses. There will be sessions of the Institute on Thursday morning, afternoon and night.

ST. ASAPH STREET.—Work on the St. Asaph street improvement has been suspended on account of the action of the Common Council at its last meeting, and the street will remain in its present condition until the Board of Aldermen shall have acted upon the resolution adopted by the Council. The City Surveyor has gone to Falls Church to attend to some business there; the chain gang is employed in other parts of the city, and the Superintendent of Police is engaged about the Court House.
